DEBBIE DE LOUISE '78

Debbie De Louise is an award-winning author and a reference librarian at the Hicksville Public Library. An OLMA and Long Island University/C.W. Post graduate, she's a member of the Cat Writers' Association, Sisters-in-Crime, International Thriller Writers, and the Long Island Authors Group. Her novels include the six books of the Cobble Cove cozy mystery series featuring Alicia the librarian and Sneaky, the library cat, and the new Buttercup Bend cozy mysteries featuring Cathy Carter, the owner of a pet cemetery and rescue center.

Debbie has won the Cat Writers' Association's Muse Medallion and several Certificates of Excellence for her books and stories. Her poems and stories appear in anthologies published by the Red Penguin Collection, the Nassau County Voices In Verse, and the Bards Annual. Her latest book, Memories and Meows, features the stories of her current and past cats written from their points of view. Debbie also writes articles for Catster.com. She lives on Long Island with her husband, daughter, and two cats. Learn more about her and her books by visiting <https://debbiedelouise.com>.

IN MEMORY OF MARY FRINQUELLI

This year's Christmas Tea is dedicated to the memory of Mary Frinquelli. Mary remained connected to OLMA in many volunteer capacities after her daughters Dina '95 and Darci '06 graduated. She was responsible for the many fabulous Christmas Tea raffle prizes throughout the years. We all miss Mary's presence today and always.

Proceeds from the Tea will benefit the Sister Jackie Walsh, RSM, Angel Fund (Tuition Assistance Fund). The fund was established to ensure that each and every Mercy girl will have the resources necessary to complete her education at OLMA. This tuition assistance fund was designed to help families that have experienced a loss of income due to prolonged illness or death and suddenly find themselves in need of financial support.

"No work of charity can be more productive of good to society than the careful instruction of young women." Catherine McAuley
